DEMOCRATS GO OVER

NEARLY WHOLE NATIVE
TICKET IS ENDORSED

NOTLEY FOR SENATE AND NAUHA
KENTWELL AND MONWAR
FOR HOUSE ONLY ONES
DROPPED.

The Democrats have endorsed Wilcox and the major part of the Home Rule ticket. This took place at a meeting held in Waverley hall last night. Col. C. J. McCarthy was in the chair and throughout the meeting, his attitude was for a going over to the Home Rulers. As this was the sentiment of the majority of the 57 present, the plan carried and the following ticket was put through:

For Delegate—Robert W. Wilcox.

For the Senate—David Kawanakoa, Edgar Cayless and J. P. Makakinal.

For Representatives, Fourth District—C. J. McCarthy, J. D. Holt Jr., H. A. Juen, G. K. Wilder, Joseph Aea and Keona.

For Representatives, Fifth District—Frank Harvey, William Mossman, D. M. Kupihea, S. K. Ohi, N. K. Kou and Damiano.

At the opening of the meeting Fred Terrell moved that a full Democratic ticket be placed in the field. Chas. Creighton said there should be no nomination for delegates, but that each man should vote on a candidate, so as to get at the uninfused opinion of the majority. This opinion did not prevail and a motion providing for the nominations by a committee of ten was passed and Chairman McCarthy read from a list the following names as constituting the committee: John Effinger, H. A. Juen, W. H. Johnson, Chas. Creighton, F. Terrell, J. O. Carter Jr., Julius Asche, H. J. Mossman, C. L. Rhodes and G. K. Wilder.

Previous to this, an attempt was made to name Col. Cornwell for delegate but it did not go through. The committee reported back the list as nominated with the exception of J. O. Carter for Senator instead of Makakinal, and a full list of Democrats for the Fourth District, the Fifth District being as passed. The committee stood 6 to 4 for Wilcox and 9 to 1 for the remainder of the Home Rulers.

C. L. Rhodes fought the Wilcox proposition and moved to insert the name of Cornwell but the majority was not of the same mind, Wilcox receiving 46 votes, Cornwell 10, and Prince Cupid 1. On motion of Cornwell, the nomination of Wilcox was made unanimous.

John Colburn attempted to speak but the chair said he had not signed the roll. Colburn asked if this was a new list of Democrats and upon being answered that it was, he and John Wise signed. The latter wanted to know if Wilcox had signed the roll but was told to sit down as the question was not before the meeting.

Dr. Noblitt moved that the remainder of the ticket be named by a standing vote and Camarinos registered a vigorous kick, saying he had attended the meeting for the purpose of helping to name a Democratic ticket and not to surrender to the Home Rulers. He walked out of the hall and was followed out by Sullivan.

Testa moved the substitution of Makakinal for Carter and this was done after J. O. Carter Jr. had said his father had withdrawn in favor of the Home Rulers. The senators were then named.

J. F. Bowler withdrew from the representative ticket and Testa took out the name of Camara. Testa then moved the naming of the entire Home Rule ticket but finally qualified this by substituting H. A. Juen for L. K. Kentwell and G. K. Wilder for Nauha. The Fifth District ticket with Frank Harvey instead of Ng Monwar, was adopted.

The chairman was authorized to appoint a committee of six, with himself, on platform, and as well a committee on finance. The meeting then adjourned until Wednesday evening.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

The Football Association of this city met last evening for the purpose of effecting permanent organization and arranging a schedule for the coming season. Both objects were accomplished.

The following officers were elected: John Waterhouse, president; J. Belser, vice president, and C. H. Cooke, secretary and treasurer. The schedule of games was arranged as follows:

November 8—Punahou vs. Mailes.
November 15—Punahou vs. H. A. C.
November 22—Mailes vs. H. A. C.
November 27—Thanksgiving Day—Punahou vs. Mailes.
December 6—Punahou vs. H. A. C.
December 13—Mailes vs. H. A. C.
Spalding football rules for 1902 were adopted to govern the games. In cases of ties for the championship those teams tying must play off the tie, according to the rule adopted.

The three captains were designated as a committee to select the officials for the game. An admission fee of twenty-five cents to the games is to be charged to defray expenses.
